

LOVE DRAMA

Curriculum for Excellence Workshops

National Book Week Workshops | 5-11 October 2010

Content

Books, Books, Books

We're walking down a cobbled street and we don't know where it's going, it's getting narrower and smaller still until we come across Mr Frobisher's magical bookshop...

The pupils will explore the world of an enchanted bookshop where they can not only search the giant bookcase for marvellous stories to read but also meet the characters that have escaped from the books and found themselves tucked away in this hidden world. The pupils will participate in a variety of games and exercises that are aimed at developing their imagination, whilst also broadening their knowledge of the literary world. This session is an opportunity for the pupils to explore some of their favourite texts whilst also finding new ones to stimulate their creativity.

Learning Level

Suitable for early, first and second stages with information and delivery adapted to the needs of your class.

Space

A large clear space, most suitable would be either a gym or assembly hall.

Time

Early/First – 60 minutes

Second – 90 minutes

Additional Information

As with all of our workshops it is extremely important the class teacher stays with the group at all times. This ensures that the learning experiences and outcomes are shared and that our workshops contribute effectively to the development of each and every young person.

Love Drama prides itself on creating a bespoke service that meets the needs of its clients. Love Drama is flexible and responsive to individual requests and the dissemination of all workshops can be tailored to complement the outcomes and experiences you have included in your forward planning. You may choose to work with us in a one-off session, over four weeks or for the duration of a term, in order to create a learning experience that effectively supports all participants. If you have any queries regarding participation within these workshops, please do not hesitate to contact us.
